SEEKING PARTNERSHIP FOR RESETTLEMENT

Stories of resilience, hope, and the quiet strength to begin again

Who We Are

A father. A family. A daughter who has never known what it means to come home.

My daughter was born in a refugee camp. She has never had a front door that is ours, a room she could paint herself, or a street she can call home. She knows the sound of a tent in the wind and how to carry her whole world on her back. And still — she laughs, she dreams, and she asks questions about a world she has only seen through a screen.

This is our story. And this is why this page exists.

A Journey of More Than Nine Years

For over nine years my family and I have lived in displacement. We have learned patience, adaptability, and the deep value of dignity — from manual labour to professional work, from survival to quiet hope.

I am a Convention refugee formally recognized by UNHCR. My family and I have held active refugee status for more than nine years. We cannot safely return to our country of origin. Resettlement through official channels remains the safest and most sustainable path forward.

> Beyond temporary relief, we are seeking lasting partnership.
> We are looking for partners who will walk with us toward a permanent home.

What We Bring

I am a community builder, youth mentor, storyteller, and lifelong learner. My experience includes counselling displaced people, designing youth programmes, and bridging cultures. I am fluent in English and French. Life in a camp taught me adaptability, resourcefulness, and how to find stability amid uncertainty.

Your partnership can help turn years of survival into a life of contribution and belonging.

How You Can Stand With Us

- Sponsor – Form or join a private/community sponsorship group through official pathways in your country.
- Advocate – Share our story or speak about complementary pathways in your community.
- Share – Pass this document to someone who may be able to open a door.
- Hold Hope – Simply refuse to look away.

Every action matters.

> ### Verification & Trust
>
> I will never ask for money, fees, or personal financial information.
>
> For verified sponsorship groups, resettlement agencies, and accredited partners: I can securely share my UNHCR file number and official documentation after confirming your legitimacy. My status can then be verified directly with UNHCR through official channels.
